LAST DAY OF THE FALL OF TROY AT THE AUDITORIUM.

Today is the last chance to see the famous "Fall of Troy" reels at this popular playhouse, where they are being shown for the second and last time. The picture is causing just as much enthusiasm as before and still retains its clear, distinct and steady features. The actual destruction of the city takes up nearly 1,000 feet of film and is not shown in one or two short scenes. There are over 2,000 armored gladiators storming the walls of the city some mounted on ferv mored gladiators storming the waits of the city, some mounted on fiery steeds, many on foot and others climb; ing the high walls. In addition to this thrilling picture there will also be shown a very entertaining Bison film entitled The Foreman's Bride. It is full of realistic comedy is well constructed and acted and contains many pretty scenes that will appeal to all. The Storm is the title of an "Imp" tilm which will also be in today's which will also be in today's

BREED THEATER.

A wonderful motion picture of unusually sterling merit is the one being shown at the Breed today on two big reels, sovering two thousand feet of film and entitled Enoch Arden. This is the Biograph masterpiece, adapted from Lord Tennyson's great and famous noem of the same sanme. It is distinctly a story of the sea and is marvelously conceived from a pictorial standpoint, shewing some of the most beautiful views of sailing craft and the occan in all its fury ever seen, yet the scenes in the humble little homes are strangely appealing, and all considered it is two thousand feet of film, which contains not a dull moment and completely bewilders the eye because of its magnificent splendor.

Another picture which holds the attention of the large audience is entitled His Baby's Doll and is one of those American Pathe productions which have so delighted the Breed's audiences this ceason. It is a powerful story, brilliantly set and superbly enected.

Some especially funny comedy is in-troduced and a magnificent scenic trip through Florence, Italy, one of the beauty spots of Europe, completes the

THE WONDERFUL MAID. There was a maid in our town
And she was wondrous wise,
She jumped into the dining-room
And swatted all the files.
—Chicago Tribune.

And when the dining-room was cleaned
Of flies, she got to itchin'
To swat some more, and so she killed
All that were in the kitchen.
—Los Angeles Express.

This done, in turn, she swatted in
The blue room and the red room.
And finished there she climbed the stair
To swat 'em in her bedroom.

—G. H. W.

No speaker of the house of representatives has become president since Mr. Polk. Mr. Cannon one said: "The speaker is frequently mentioned as a presidential possil-flity—until he has appointed his committees." dependence, hardly one is legicle now. But this is due to the fact that some sixty years ago in taking a facsimilie the press copy absorbed the ink from nearly all the signatures.

A Chungking correspondent writes:
"The building of European honses by Chinese still continues; in fact, they seem to spring up like mushrooms all over the city. Many of them are lath and plaster only, but hace a European appearance at a distance. It has often been remarked that the amount of foreign style buildings indicates the amount of unconscious influence which the foreigner is exercising upon the the foreigner is exercising upon the Chinese in these parts
